What Mansfield Woodhouse has to offer...

Heritage
The village of Mansfield Woodhouse has probably begun to take shape around the time of the Norman conquest. Following the clearance of the countryside by the Normans, villages in the area and nearby areas were established, with the village of Woodhouse possibly being inhabited by the early 13th century.

Shopping Areas
The main town centre shopping areas in Mansfield Woodhouse are inspired on Stamp's Street, High Street and Priory Street. A variety of local independent, non-permanent and permanent customer services are offered. There also a Co-op supermarket and several shops in a small pedestrianised area. Commercial park free parking and access to the high street – you can walk through the pedestrian areas to get to High Street once you park your car. A wide variety of goods and services of competitive prices are available throughout the town. This town centre area is also a great place to meet friends, to walk and enjoy the atmosphere.

Sports & Leisure
Mansfield Woodhouse has a variety of sports and leisure facilities for all age groups. Facilities including bowling green, tennis courts and football pitch at Yeoman Park.

There are many fascinating insights into Woodhouse’s history, from a set of four engravings produced by the ‘Famous Mansfield Woodhouse’. These engravings were made in 1879 and give a good indication of the town’s layout at that time.

Out & About
Mansfield Woodhouse is an excellent base from which to explore the beauty of the countryside and heritage of the area. For example, if using Mansfield Woodhouse as your base, you can include the nearby Worksop village of Fosseway Vale, which is one of the best preserved Samian settlements in Britain.

In 1703 the village and church burnt down, with the former restored about the same time but it was burnt to the ground in 1704. The rebuilding of the church was begun in 1705 and was restored in 1896.

In 1304 the village and church burnt down, with the former restored about the same time but it was burnt to the ground in 1704. The rebuilding of the church was begun in 1705 and was restored in 1896.

Mansfield Woodhouse Extension and Area
Mansfield Woodhouse is an excellent base from which to explore the beauty of the countryside and heritage of the area. For example, if using Mansfield Woodhouse as your base, you can include the nearby Worksop village of Fosseway Vale, which is one of the best preserved Samian settlements in Britain.

In 1703 the village and church burnt down, with the former restored about the same time but it was burnt to the ground in 1704. The rebuilding of the church was begun in 1705 and was restored in 1896.

In 1304 the village and church burnt down, with the former restored about the same time but it was burnt to the ground in 1704. The rebuilding of the church was begun in 1705 and was restored in 1896.

Mansfield Woodhouse Extension and Area
Mansfield Woodhouse is an excellent base from which to explore the beauty of the countryside and heritage of the area. For example, if using Mansfield Woodhouse as your base, you can include the nearby Worksop village of Fosseway Vale, which is one of the best preserved Samian settlements in Britain.

In 1703 the village and church burnt down, with the former restored about the same time but it was burnt to the ground in 1704. The rebuilding of the church was begun in 1705 and was restored in 1896.